DR. SORLEY OPENS OFFICE

Dr. Milford S. Sorley, who left a growing practice in dentistry to enter the army at the beginning of the late war has opened a new office at 79th and Racine Ave. for the practice of dentistry.

Dr. Sorley, who entered the army as Lieutenant, rapidly rose to promotion due to his constructive ideas and suggestions, many of which were put in practice, holding the rank of Major when he was discharged.

As time goes by this world does change. The old story has been go West young ladies, go West. But that has even changed or has been changed by Mr. Freeman Schneider of the Auburn Pharmacy who went away for a vacation and came home with a bride, Miss Hanson of Denver, Colo.

St. Sabina's Carnival

Immense crowds that nightly throng grounds adjacent to St. Sabina's Church indicate a huge success for the carnival being held all this week for the benefit of St. Sabina's Church. Old H. C. L. is getting a mighty wallop by the participants who are carrying away armloads of foodstuffs every night. Home made cakes, coffee and sandwiches are being served by the ladies and many articles of fancy work are being offered.

The Gamma Phi Sorority gave a truck party on Sunday August 31st at Palos Park. t was a big success and all who were present more than enjoyed themselves. The day seemed a little too short for the Gamma Phi's for if they never knew what fun was before they sure did know what it was last Sunday. It was one great time that's all, and if you wish to know more about it, ask a Gamma Phi; she'll tell you.

In addition to the above, we wish to state that the boys who were present were very good selected gentlemen and Mr. and Mrs. Cummings of 7959 Union Ave. chaperoned the crowd.

BUSINESS MEN HAVE LIVELY MEETING

Last Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Auburn Park Business Men's Assn. was the scene of lively activity that will be of considerable benefit to our people.

Chief Thomas O'Connor of the Chicago Fire Department, accompanied by Alderman Fisher were present and their assistance and co-operation asked for the installation of a new fire engine house close to 79th and Halsted Sts. The party was conducted on a tour of the neighborhood, wherein it was pointed out to the chief and his associates that the rapidly growing section west of Halsted St. was without ample fire protection He agreed that such was the case and promised to use his effort to give us what is so badly needed here—more fire fighting equipment. Alderman Fisher, who is a member of the Finance Committee promised his hearty co-operation and influence with that Committee to supply the necessary funds to back up the Chief's recommendation.

Captain Donlan of Engine Co. No. 54 was also present and volunteered his assistance toward reaching our goal.

John P. Cummings, Major with the A. E. F., presented the plans of the organization of the American Legion, composed of discharged soldiers, sailors and marines banded together for the purpose of keeping up the high ideals of Americanism so wonderfully demonstrated in the recent war.

Lieut. Johnson of the Gresham Police Force gave a short talk on police business in Auburn Park promising his best effort to make Auburn Park as well policed as any district in Chicago.

The attendance was large and enthusiastic and much progress as an organization was evidenced.

Business men here who do not attend these meetings are depriving themselves of much valuable and interesting information and help. Come out. Be a booster. Help the good work along. Help yourself by helping your neighbor.

Luncheon today at 12 noon McNally's Dining Room.

A Great Day for Ireland

Patriotic Demonstration of Irish Freedom Organizations Will Parade —Great Demonstration at St. Anne's Auditorium Sept. 14 at 3 P. M.—Turn Out and Help the Irish Republic.

The Chicago Council Friends of Irish Freedom met at Kenwood Hall, 4310 Cottage Grove Ave., Sunday, Sept. 7th, Prof. Joseph Gonnelly in the chair. An elaborate program was reported by the various committees for the mass meeting at St. Anne's Auditorium, Sunday, Sept. 14th at 3 p. m. and the overflow demonstration of La Salle St. the same date It was decided that Rev Harry P. Coughlin of Visitation Church should preside at the Auditorium and a chairman for the outdoor demonstration will be chosen at the next meeting, Wednesday evening, Sept. 10th at St. Anne's Hall, 55th and La Salle Sts, when final preparations will be completed The following speakers will address the meeting: Judge D Cery, National President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians; Governor Dunne, lately from France, Monsignor Edward Kelly of St. Anne's; Father McCabe. Mrs Mary F. McWhorter, Judge Scanlon, Hugh O'Neill, Prof. Gonnelly, President of the Chicago Council Friends of Irish Freedom, R W Wolfe, John Fitzpatrick, President of Federation of Labor, and others.

A procession will be formed at 55th and Halsted Sts at 1 p m, consisting of fifty branches of the Friends of Irish Freedom. Sailors and soldiers of the late war and civic societies of the South Side are cordially invited to participate. Over a hundred automobiles are expected and they are requested to decorate their cars with the American and Irish flags, twin emblems of liberty. The owners of machines are requested to fall in on Halsted St. north of 55th St. behind the Robert Emmett branch which will head the parade, as the original promoters of this great demonstration, Prof. John McNamara and 500 dancing pupils and the Irish Pipers' band will participate in costume. The parade will start at 2 o'clock sharp, headed by Bryan G Connolly, Grand Marshal of the day, led by the 7th Regiment band; will move east on Garfield Blvd to Princeton Ave. south on Princeton Ave., where they will be reviewed by the National Delegates of the German American Catholic Societies of the United States, including forty archbishops and bishops, societies and school children They will go east on 59th, north on La Salle, where the demonstration will be held. Also the Daughters of Martha Washington in costume will participate in automobiles in charge of their leader, Mrs J B. Mahoney, who will take up subscriptions in the last final drive for the Irish Freedom fund.

All patriotic citizens of Auburn Park, Beverly Hills and vicinity are requested to join the parade in their machines They are reminded that Ireland was always our friend and England was always our enemy and that one million soldiers of Irish Blood were fighting or ready to fight for liberty in the late war and 50 per cent of the continental army was Irishmen and as a mark of gratitude to them George Washington became a member of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and an original Sinn Feiner.

Therefore we invite you to turn out en masse and protest against the unAmerican League of Nations. It was made in England by our lifelong enemy.

THOS. H. PRENDERGAST,
Chairman of Publicity.

LEAGUE CERTAIN, WILSON DECLARES

PRESIDENT IN OPENING SPEECHES OF TOUR VOICES HIGH HOPE.

WORLD WAITS FOR THE U. S.

Future Free From War if America Carries Out Her Pledges, Says the Chief Executive.

(BY MOUNT CLEMENS NEWS BUREAU)

Aboard President's Special Train, St Louis—Displaying a high confidence that his fellow citizens in the great majority agree with him in his desire to end war forever, and that they will see to it that the peace treaty with its League of Nations inclusion is ratified by the Senate, President Wilson is making a successful way across the country on the long journey he has undertaken for the purpose of laying before the plain people a report of his work in Paris and explaining to them just what the league means

Thus far in his travels he has everywhere met with warm greetings, both in the great halls where he has spoken formally and in the little crossroad hamlets where his train has halted at times and he has exchanged words with the villagers who pressed forward to greet him.

He feels, and does not hesitate to say so when chatting with his traveling companions, that the American people want no more of war and want to become part of the league so that there may be no more war He struck his keynote when he said in his first address in Columbus, O.

"This treaty was not intended merely to end this single war. It is meant as a notice to every government who in the future will attempt this thing (what Germany attempted) that mankind will unite to inflict the same punishment There is no national triumph to be recorded in this treaty There is no glory sought for any particular nation The thought of the statesmen collected around that table was of their people, of the sufferings they had gone through, of the losses they had incurred, of that great throbbing heart which was so depressed, so forlorn, so sad in every memory it had of the five tragical years that have gone by Let us never forget those years, my fellow countrymen, let us never forget the purpose, high and disinterested, with which America lent its strength, not for its own glory but for the defense of mankind."

"As I said, this treaty was not intended merely to end this war It was intended to prevent any similar war I wonder if some of the opponents of the League of Nations have forgotten the promises we made our people before we went to that peace table We had taken by processes of law the flower of our youth from every countryside, from every household, and we told those mothers and fathers and sisters and wives and sweethearts that we were taking those men to fight a war which would end business of that sort, and if we do not end it, if we do not do the best that human concert of action can do to end it, we are of all men the most unfaithful—the most unfaithful to the loving hearts who suffered in this war, the most unfaithful to those households bowed in grief and yet lifted with the feeling that the lad laid down his life for a great thing, and, among other things, in order that other lads might never have to do the same thing.

"That is what the League of Nations is for—to end this war justly and then not merely to serve notice on governments which would contemplate the same things Germany contemplates, that they will do so at their peril, but also concerning the combination of power which will prove to them that they will do it at their peril. It is idle to say the world will combine against you; but it is persuasive to say the world is combined against you The League of Nations is the only thing that can prevent the recurrence of this dreadful catastrophe and redeem our promises"

A League of Nations would have prevented the late conflict, the president asserted, explaining:

"I did not meet a single public man who did not admit these things: That Germany would not have gone into this war if she thought Great Britain was going into it, and that she most certainly would never have gone into it had she dreamed America was going into it. And they all admit that a notice beforehand that the greatest powers of the world would combine to prevent this sort of thing would prevent it absolutely."

Applause and cheers greeted each declaration of the president that wars might be avoided in future by the operations of the League of Nations

In conclusion, the president said he felt certain the treaty will be accepted, and was only impatient of the delay He added:

"Do you realize, my fellow citizens, that the whole world is waiting on America? The only country in the world that is trusted today is the United States, and the world is waiting to see if its trust is justified."

Mr Wilson's Indianapolis speech was like the one at Columbus, an explanation of the league, an appeal for its ratification, and a prediction that it was sure to come into being Roughing It.

Robert and his father were stranded one night out in a country district Their car had broken down and they were obliged to stay all night in a humble little home Everything was strange to Robert, who was strictly a city child When he returned home I heard him tell his little neighbor friend "Say, it was great! We slept on a feather bed and washed in their dishpan on the back porch."

About the Carat.

The "carat" the unit of weight peculiar to jewelry, was introduced from India Man sought to record the weight of small objects by using tiny seeds The barley grain was used in Europe. In the East the seeds of a vetch were in use, and it is from the Greek word for vetch (keration) that the now familiar term "carat" is derived.

Australian Newspapers.

The Australian daily, weekly and monthly publications are considered great institutions, especially the dailies, and the consumption of newsprint alone is large, probably running into 4,000 tons monthly for the commonwealth

America is an inspiration. America is a spirit. America is something mystical which lives in the heavens It is the constant and continuous searching of the human heart for the thing that is better.—Franklin K. Lane.

RAILWAY LABOR MOVE ASSAILED

New York World, Strong Wilson Supporter, Denounces "Revolution by Ultimatum."

PARALLEL TO RUSSIAN IDEA.

Calls Railroad Brotherhoods' Plan for Government Ownership "Soviet Economics Venture."

New York—The New York World in a leading editorial, characterizes the railroad labor plan for Government ownership of railroads as "a straight out adventure into Soviet economics"

The editorial page of the World has long had a national reputation for unvaryingly support of Democratic principles, hostility to Wall street, and the most loyal and vigorous assistance to President Wilson. The World says:

"Revolution by Ultimatum."

The plan of the railroad brotherhoods for taking over the railroad properties of the country is a straight out adventure into Soviet economics It contemplates collective ownership, but class operation and control, which is at the foundation of the Soviet system.

The American people, through their Government, are to buy the railroads from the private owners and turn these properties over to the railroad employees to manage and operate. In consideration of an investment of approximately $20,000,000,000 the Government is to appoint one-third of the directors, and the public is to share in such savings in the cost of operation as may remain after the employees have paid themselves what they think their services ought to be worth.

The spirit in which the program is put forth may be inferred from a statement made by B. M. Jewell, acting president of the railroad employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, in which he said that if President Wilson's suggestion to Congress was carried out "we will tie up the railroads so tight that they will never run again if that legislation is passed." It might have been Trotzky himself speaking to a bourgeoise that had offered mild and academic objections to being despoiled.

Who Is the Government?

Before any railroad plan can be worked out one highly essential fact must be established—namely, whether the sovereign power of the United States is vested in Government and in the American people or whether it is vested in the railroad brotherhoods

For three years now the brotherhoods have assumed that the sovereign power was vested in them, and Congress has provided them with excellent reasons for that assumption When the railroad employees in the critical period of the summer of 1916 demanded an eight hour day and threatened a general strike, President Wilson sent a message to Congress in which he urged that the eight hour day be made the basis of work and wages, but he made four other proposals, one of which called for—

"An amendment to the existing Federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation and arbitration of such controversies as the present by adding to it a provision that in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute should be instituted and completed before a strike or lockout may be lawfully attempted"

Try to Intimidate Congress.

Congress refused to enact this legislation because the labor leaders objected to it, and now we have a situation in which a labor leader can threaten to "tie up the railroads so tight that they will never run again" if Congress presumes to pass an act to which the brotherhood autocracy objects as unequal to its imperative demands

The railroad brotherhoods have embarked upon a policy that even the most conservative of them must admit is economically revolutionary If their scheme of nationalization under class control is to be carried out in respect to railroads, nobody can draw the line where it shall stop until all industry is under Soviet direction. Yet they are not putting their program out as a matter to be discussed and deliberately considered by the American people They are trying to force the issue and bring about a revolution by ultimatum

Intrusion of Willie.

"'Scuse me, aunt' I hate to bother you—but I really think you are sitting on a little snake that I've mislaid."—Life.

To Preserve Letters.

The following method of preserving the legibility of pencil writing is valuable: Steam the letter until quite limp, then brush over with a solution composed of equal parts of milk and water. Hang it up until nearly dry. Then press it between two sheets of blotting paper with a hot iron.

Almost Universal Symbol.

The swastika symbol has been found depicted on tombs at Hissarlik, near ancient Troy; on Buddhistic inscriptions in India, in Etruscan necropolises, on coins of Gaza and Corinth; on rock carvings in Sweden, and on Celtic stones in Britain In America in pre Columbian times, it was in common use by the aborigines

Condition to Avoid.

The dangerous moment in life comes when men begin to over-value the past at the expense of the present It is the moment of religious controversies, for ancestor worship, for narrowing in, for exalting one set of people and excluding another. When we reach it, it means that we are growing old But we need never reach it.—Exchange.

Where the Grocer Was.

Doris' mother was in the habit of ordering her bread at Smith's grocery. One day while entertaining callers they heard Doris in the next room talking through her toy telephone, asking Central for Smith's grocery when she called "Mother, Mr Smith isn't at home" "Where do you suppose he is?" replied the mother Doris answered: "Why, he's up in heaven getting our daily bread."

Penon de Coron.

Few persons besides Chinese traders visit the forbidding shores of rock-bound Penon de Coron The rugged beauty of its towering cliffs, with their dark and jagged outlines against the southern sky, is lost upon the natives, who see them only as a source of revenue By swinging from ropes or climbing ladders they scour these rocks for the tiny nests from which are concocted the famous bird nest soup These nests they sell to oriental traders by thousands, who come regularly to barter for this delicacy of Chinese fare.

Cultivate the Memory.

Back of the idea of cultivating a memory is the keener edge it puts on the brain generally, which is the making of the more attractive person. Is there anything duller than a woman who is just too lazy minded to try to remember names and places and has to refer constantly to a third person for aid in telling an incident?—Exchange.

Burmese Marriages.

A curious idea among the Burmese is that people born on the same day of the week must not marry. Hence each girls carries a record of her birthday in her name, each day having a letter belonging to it, and all children are called by a name that begins with that letter.
